Subject: Punjab Police PSCA Year Book

My Dear Mr. Kashif,

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health and high spirits.

It is with great pride that I share with you the latest edition of the Punjab Police Safe Cities Authority (PSCA) Yearbook. This publication encapsulates a transformative year of progress, driven by a clear vision of smart governance, citizen safety, and institutional innovation.

In 2025 Punjab Police PSCA expanded its Smart Safe Cities framework across the province, achieving a 90% citizen satisfaction rate. The Yearbook highlights key innovations such as real-time emergency response, virtual policing, and environmental surveillance integrations. These initiatives not only enhanced public trust but also redefined governance through transparency, digital accessibility, and impact-driven outcomes, values closely aligned with Transparency International's mission.

I believe this document reflects our shared commitment to integrity, efficiency, and service delivery excellence in the public sector. We look forward to your insights and continued partnership in promoting transparency and accountability in governance.

Warm regards,

Muhammad Fawad-ud-Din Riaz
