Subject: Violation of Public Procurement Regulatory Authority (PPRA) Rules 2004, Captain
Pakistan Navy, General Manager Marine Engineer Surface, Pakistan Naval Dockyard's Tender
Notice for Procurement for PNS Gwadar Upgradation

Dear Sir,

This is with reference to your tender notice appeared in Daily 'Nai Baat' Newspaper on 08 July, 2026. The said advertisement is in violation of Public Procurement Regulatory Authority (PPRA) Rules 2004, Rule No. 13 'Response Time'.

In the tender notice, the submission and opening date of bid is given on 15-07-2026, where it does not fulfill the fifteen days of response time, and is seven (07) days less. It is a violation of Public Procurement Regulatory Authority (PPRA) Rules 2004, Rule 13. The Rule is quoted below for your reference;

13. Response time.- (1) The procuring agency may decide the response time for receipt of bids or proposals (including proposals for pre-qualification) from the date of publication of an advertisement or notice, keeping in view the individual procurement's complexity, availability and urgency. However, under no circumstances the response time shall be less than fifteen days for national competitive bidding and thirty days for international competitive bidding from the date of publication of advertisement or notice.

Captain Pakistan Navy, General Manager Marine Engineer Surface, Pakistan Naval Dockyard, Karachi is requested to rectify the given mistake and issue corrigendum in accordance with Public Procurement Regulatory Authority (PPRA) Rules 2004 to avoid mis-procurement under Rule 50.

Transparency International Pakistan is striving for across-the-board application of Rule of Law, which is the only way to stop corruption, and achieve Zero tolerance against corruption.
